

Job Title: Trainee Firefighter

Accountable to: Station Commander

Job Purpose: To deliver operational Airport Fire Service and routine station duties as described below within the allocated watch on a shift by shift basis.

Key Duties and Responsibilities:

- Operational duties and fire-fighting response in line with competence training and qualification
- Completion of all tasks as required by senior officer(s) in a professional, efficient and effective manner
- To ensure an efficient approach to all operational incidents and Fire Service related issues.
- Carry out the role of fire fighter at incidents/accidents and all other aspects of the roll as per qualification training syllabus and CAP699 role map.
- If requested and where appropriate qualification is held, to temporarily act as Crew Commander and assume specific responsibilities on his/her behalf where required.
- Respond as part of response compliment to emergency calls including aircraft emergency calls, first aid and domestic calls airside.
- Maintain readiness for an efficient response to emergencies.
- Driving and operating all Fire Service vehicles and equipment.
- Maintenance and testing of fire service equipment at intervals as prescribed in relevant departmental instructions.
- Reporting of test and inspection results utilising appropriate electronic or paper based mechanism and rectification where appropriate of failures or performance deterioration in line with station procedures.
- Maintenance of PPE and ensuring all uniform issue is kept clean and in good repair.
- Undertaking training and re-qualification to maintain competence as required by the company standard or regulatory requirements.
- Routine housekeeping of Station facilities / assisting with station maintenance and upgrades.
- Comply with company policies and Station procedures.
- Provide operational cover for other fire fighters as and when required.
- Act as Watchroom attendant and implement emergency procedures in the event of an emergency call.
- Achieving and maintaining a high standard of operational competence at all times.
- To perform any other reasonable duty as defined by the company.
- Maintain personal fitness levels in line with company policy and regulatory requirements including proportional weight to height. (body mass index)
- Carry out extraneous duties as required in line with Station procedures:
As frequently as required and where necessary as part of daily duties carry out various aircraft servicing duties to assist in the turnaround of aircraft as part of the Prestwick Handling team in line with station procedures and policies laid down in the extraneous duties analysis.

Contract: Permanent.

Hours: 42 per week, on a rotational shift pattern including night and weekend working.

Salary: £28,005.33 per annum (£12.82 per hour).